

ESL STEEL TRAIL

June'24 | Issue01 | Published by ESL Corporate Communications

Mr. Arun Misra, CEO of HZL & ED of Vedanta, Unveils 'Drishti' Live Feed Monitoring Room at BF#1 Project Office!

Stakeholder Meeting Celebrates Launch of Vedanta AAS Vidyalaya Café at Yogidih Middle School, Promoting Digital Education and Community Engagement!

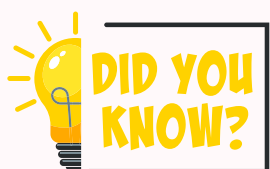

ESL'S joint CSR & HSES event highlights youth engagement & environment sustainable initiative!

Vedanta ESL Bagged GOLD Award in 6th Conclave on 5S System of Workplace Management !

Glimpses of Fun at workplace and Sustainable Birthday Celebration !

A British inventor, Henry Bessemer, is generally credited with the invention of the first technique to mass produce steel in the mid-1850s, by the process of blowing air through molten pig iron to oxidize the material & separate impurities.